

161 Children's Bodies Have Been Recovered FIRE WAS INCENDIARY Ferry Boats Collide

Pupils Thought to Have Started Blaze

Teachers Unknowingly March Their Pupils Into Flames Which Leaped Up Stairway.

CLEVELAND, O., March 5.—Late this afternoon 161 bodies had been taken from the ruins of the Lakeview school in Collinwood, where it is thought 180 school children lost their lives yesterday. Of the number of bodies recovered 129 have been identified. Judging from the number now thought to be missing there may be fully twenty more bodies in the ruins which have been burned to ashes.

CLEVELAND, March 5.—Up to 10 o'clock today 112 little bodies had been identified from among the pupils of the Lakeview school in Collinwood, who lost their lives in the fire that gutted the school building yesterday morning.

Twenty-four hours had passed but the exact number of fatalities was unknown. The number may reach 170. How many bodies still are in the ruins, if any, has not been positively determined. Village firemen and voluntary assistants are still probing among the smoldering ruins.

So far 168 bodies have been recovered. Of these there remain fifty-six still to be identified. Of the fifty-six it is generally admitted that practically none will be distinguished one from the other.

Their names must be ascertained from the list of missing. A great public funeral will take place tomorrow or Saturday. County Coroner Dr. T. A. Burke today began a thorough investigation of the causes leading to the terrible loss of life.

CLEVELAND, March 5.—One hundred and sixty-five lives, all but two of them children between the ages of 5 and 15, are known to have been lost in the fire which yesterday destroyed the public school in North Collinwood, ten miles east of this city.

Several others are still missing and their bodies are possibly in the ruins. It probably will be several days before the exact number of dead is accurately determined.

Of the 155 bodies recovered but 108 have been identified. The other bodies are unrecognizable. It is only by means of some small articles of wearing apparel that their names can be determined.

Cause of Fire Is Mystery.

The cause of the fire is a mystery. It was supposed that it came from an overheated furnace or an exploded boiler in the basement. It has been established that there was no explosion and the janitor of the school, Fred Herter, three of whose children died with an arm's length of their father, declares that it could not have come from the furnace. The janitor was on his way to open the furnace drafts and increase the heat, which was low, when he was met by three little girls running from the basement, who told him there was a fire below. It is considered possible by members of the Collinwood school board that these little girls may have started the blaze.

Claims Incendiaryism.

L. R. Gardner, a member of the school board, is positive in his assertions that the fire was of incendiary origin. In that portion of the building where the fire was first discovered there were no electric wires, no waste or rags; no direct means of creating heat. It is therefore believed by Gardner and by others that the three little girls may, if they are ever found, throw some light on the cause of the tragedy.

There were in the building, at the time

CRASH IN FOG; BIG PANIC FOLLOWS

Yerba Buena Badly Damaged in Collision With Newark.

A panic among the passengers on board the steamer Newark of the Southern Pacific Company, and the Yerba Buena of the Key Route, was created this morning about 11 o'clock when the former crashed into the latter vessel as they were leaving their slips on the San Francisco side of the bay.

The Yerba Buena was badly damaged in the collision, its side being caved in when the Newark struck it. None of the passengers was injured but several were badly shaken up. Women screamed and rushed about in frenzy, fearing that a serious accident had happened.

A mud scow, which was being towed past the ferry building was the indirect cause of the accident. The steamers endeavoring to pass the scow collided.

At the Key Route pier this afternoon it was stated that the Yerba Buena had resumed her regular trips.

CAPTAIN ROALD AMUNDSEN.

LIKE RETURN OF THE DEAD ACCUSES HUSBAND'S LAWYER OF ATTEMPT TO BLACKEN HER NAME

Says Sleuths Tried to Lure Her to Room

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Sitting quietly on the witness stand and answering the numerous and almost cruel questions put to her in a sympathetic and sweetly pleading voice, Mrs. Marie Eleanor Hanbury went through the trying ordeal of a witness in the divorce case instituted by her husband in Judge Hunt's court this morning. Only once or twice did her voice fail her, and occasionally it was necessary for her to wipe away her tears which trickled down her pretty face.

Most of the testimony given was of a startling nature. The witness told of the alleged drunken orgies of her husband. She stated that he was brutal to her all the time, and that he was sober only for a couple of hours during the day.

Told of the Drinks.

Her recital of the various drinks and the quality of them, invited by her husband, was pathetic as it was to her, did not fail to bring the smiles to the faces of her hearers and when she told of the fact that it was her husband's custom every night to get up, dress, and take a drink, laughter resounded in the courtroom.

"Do you remember any evening when you went on auto rides with two detectives?" was the first question put to the witness by Attorney F. B. Young, her counsel.

The defendant stated that she had on two occasions ridden with the detectives and explained that one evening when she was returning with her sister from Van Ness Theater, and they were both in evening dress, and it was raining, an automobile had driven up and two men who said the machine was hired by her husband, offered to take her to her hotel.

About the Auto Rides.

This was the first occasion of an auto ride and the second came, she said, when she sprained her ankle.

"BABY" JOHN WANTS HIS FREEDOM

Asks Court to Release Him From Guardianship of His Mother.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—"Baby" John Martin appeared in Judge Graham's court this morning, accompanied by District Attorney Hall of Trinity county, to ask the revocation of the papers of guardianship issued some years ago to Mrs. John Martin. The request was made because of the recent startling disclosures made by Mrs. Martin.

Judge Graham will hear arguments on the petition late this afternoon.

AMUNDSEN WILL TOUR ARCTIC IN 1910

For Scientific Purposes Only—Visits in This City.

Captain Roald Amundsen, the distinguished Norwegian navigator, said this morning to a TRIBUNE reporter that he would lead his third expedition in July, 1910, into the unexplored territory of the Arctic sea and try to divide the unknown territory in two, to see what is in it.

Amundsen will start from San Francisco through Bering strait and then straight into the ice to the unknown region.

Captain Amundsen plans that it will take four or five years to drift across the ice into the Arctic sea, but calculates upon taking enough provisions to last the crew six years. He will sail in his small vessel, called "Gloa," which is now resting at the Mare Island navy yard.

The "Gloa" is the vessel in which Captain Amundsen made his expedition through the northwest passage, starting from the Atlantic side, and after going along the north coast of North America emerged through Bering strait into the Pacific.

In Interest of Science.

"I am no North Pole hunter," said Captain Amundsen. "My expedition will be purely scientific. I will study the currents of the sea and the climatic and magnetic phenomena. I think the Arctic sea is possibly covered with ice. Ice banks are settling toward the north. I will push my vessel into the ice and drift with it on the other side the Arctic."

ALAMEDA CO. GOVERNMENT ECONOMICALLY ADMINISTERED SHOWN BY OFFICIAL FIGURES OF THE STATE BLUE BOOK

Salaries 80 Per Cent Less Than in Los Angeles—County Deputies by Population Are 50 Per Cent Less.

At the request of M. J. Layman of the Layman Real Estate Company, County Clerk John P. Cook has prepared a comparative tabulated statement from the official Blue Book for 1907, recently issued by the Secretary of State, showing the salaries paid to all county officers and deputies, together with the number of such deputies in the counties of Alameda and Los Angeles.

Comparative Statement

	Salaries	Deputies	Salaries	Deputies
County Clerk	$38,650	21	$66,220	34
Sheriff	28,600	19	47,320	36
Tax Collector	16,200	5	90,280	29
Treasurer	8,400	3	8,520	3
Recorder	15,700	9	43,560	31
Auditor	13,400	6	26,850	9
District Attorney	20,700	10	42,860	18
Assessor	54,025	7	92,140	30
Superintendent of Schools	8,800	3	13,200	6
Coroner	8,000	0	8,100	3
Public Administrator	Fees	0	4,800	1
Surveyor	Fees	0	27,060	16
Superior Judges	12,500—(5)	0	27,000—(9)	0
Supervisors	13,500—(5)	0	12,750—(5)	0
Total	$238,475	83	$510,760	216

County Clerk Cook Says:

In discussing this statement County Clerk Cook gave the following interview:

"An analysis of these figures shows that the aggregate of all salaries paid in Alameda county is $238,475, the total number of deputies being eighty-three, while in Los Angeles the aggregate of salaries is $510,760, with the total number of deputies of two hundred and sixteen.

"The estimated population of Alameda county is given in this publication as 280,000, that of Los Angeles county as 333,000. I think it will be conceded that this estimate is at least not excessive for Alameda county, as all well informed authorities place its population at figures much higher than this, Edwin Stearns, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, estimating it at 450,000. For the purpose of comparison then we cannot be charged with unfairness in accepting these figures as reasonable.

Cost Per Capita Less.

The cost per capita for the payment of all salaries of the county government of Alameda county is $5 17-100 cents, while that of Los Angeles is $1.53 38-100; in other words the aggregate of salaries in Los Angeles county is 80 per cent greater per capita than the aggregate of salaries in Alameda county. In the number of deputies this variation is even greater, the ratio for Alameda county being one deputy for every 3373 of population, while in Los Angeles county the ratio is one deputy for every 1541 of population.

A close scrutiny of the appended tabulation as to each particular office will demonstrate the evenness of the ratios above given both as to salaries and deputies. In no instance is the salary or number of deputies of any office greater in Alameda county than in that of Los Angeles. The greatest variation is in that of the office of Tax Collector, the aggregate of salaries in Alameda county being $16,200, with five regular deputies, while in Los Angeles the aggregate of salaries is $90,280, with twenty-nine regular deputies, additional assistance as allowed by law being figured in both counties.

Economically Administered.

"In the presentation and consideration of these figures I hope it will not be charged that I am in any way attempting to show that Los Angeles county is extravagant in its expenditures for salaries. I have no doubt that every officer and deputy there are needed for the proper conduct of the county government, and that they are not over-paid. The inevitable conclusion of fair-minded people, however, must be that the Alameda county government, with its vast and rapidly increasing volume of business is economically administered."

CITIZENS ROUSE COUNCIL TO TAKE DECISIVE STEPS Speakers at Mass Meeting Charge Officials With Neglect in Garbage Matter ---Immediate Action Resolved.

Following a mass meeting held in the Council chambers of the City Hall last night, it was decided in caucus of five Councilmen—Pendleton, Elmer Jackson, Meese and Mullins—to take decisive action next Friday evening on the question of disposing of the city's garbage, which is at present being scattered broadcast in the West Oakland flats north of the Sixteenth-street station. It has been definitely determined that the city authorities have been aroused and are fully determined to take a decided hold of the situation and settle the perplexing question at one stroke. Four propositions will be discussed by the Council tomorrow night and there is a probability that every one of the four suggestions will receive favorable consideration.

The four propositions which it is expected will be adopted to do away with the West Oakland nuisance are the adoption of Councilman Jackson's resolution, authorizing the Board of Health to take the city's garbage; authorizing the Board of Health to dispose of the city's garbage; rescinding the ordinance granting the Pacific Incinerating Company the privilege of gathering the city's refuse and authorizing the Board of Health to construct a rat-proof fence around the dumping grounds in the West Oakland flats.

Cost of Disposal.
Ed Webster has offered to take a contract to remove garbage to sea at $1 per ton. About 300 tons of garbage is collected daily and now dumped in the flats, to breed disease, stench and rats. Captain Evans has offered to sell to the city for $750 a bridge suitable for taking the garbage outside of the city and declares that the bridge can be operated by the city at an expense not to exceed $4000 per month. The plan of disposing of the garbage at sea is strongly urged by Dr. J. D. Long of the United States Hospital service, who is in charge of the work being done to prevent an epidemic of disease.

At the mass meeting there were representatives of various organizations, members of the city administration, the Board of Health, garbage committee of the council, church representatives, the Mayor's committee of seventy and numerous interested citizens who are aroused to action over existing conditions. At the mass meeting, preceding the caucus of the council, the suggestion to dispose of the city's garbage at sea was discussed at length and this proposition will be brought to the attention of the council at its special meeting.

Several members of the Committee of Seventy, who composed of ten taxpayers from each of the seven wards of the city, were pointed in their remarks to the councilmen, telling them that they were neglectful of their duty and were not doing their best to clean up the city. The lobby of the council chamber was well-filled with citizens who took the councilmen to task for their alleged neglect in providing for the garbage of the city. President J. C. Bullock of the West Oakland Club was one of the first speakers. He objected to spending large sums of money for attorneys' fees to fight against the continuance of the garbage dumps and said in part:

Shotguns Better.
"I do not want to make any threat, but there is a shotgun in my hand. I had spent as much in buying shotguns as we put into lawyers' fees, the dumps would not now be at our very doors. We have already printed circulars and shall distribute them, unless this council does something that will advertise Oakland in no favorable light to the world."
W. J. Layman, a member of the committee of Seventy, said: "I think it is about time we hear from the councilmen. I think they owe it to the people to explain why they permit this dump to remain. It is time for this council to obey the people. If they do not, we will do something the committee of Seventy will."

Urges Special Tax.
Dr. George C. Pardee, chairman of the Committee of Seventy, declared that the council should have no hesitation in following the directions of the Board of Health and he urged a special tax if it was found necessary. He said in part:
"I believe if all the people of Oakland should go to the West End and see the condition of those dumps and realize what a danger there is from them, there would be a riot in this city. The time for talking is long past. If there is any respectable physician in this city who says there is no danger of bubonic plague, I should like to know his name. Yet that argument is constantly used."

"This is no time to gamble with death. We must hope there will be no bubonic plague, but we cannot risk anything on that mere hope."
"I pray that none of you will ever worry as I have worried to keep away a quarantine. The mere matter of a quarantine must not deter us from making every possible step to prevent such a catastrophe. You are practicing economy now, but there is rapidly approaching a time, if it is not in fact already here, when the city will be a crime against the city of Oakland, against each man in it, against his children."

"If the bubonic plague ever comes to this city, if Oakland is ever quarantined by the outside world, then the members of this council will be forever damned in the hearts of the city's residents. The time is not here and there are no such men can afford to dally with death."
Among others who spoke were Dr. Long, P. P. Leach, Jr., Theodore Gier, Bernard P. Miller, Captain W. B. Parson, Dr. Samuel D. Shuey, Appellate Judge S. P. Hall, Dr. F. P. Jackson and John E. Sanford. They all urged that steps be immediately taken to abate the garbage nuisance and take other necessary steps for the protection of the city's health.

FARMERS OF CENTERVILLE ORGANIZE FOR PROTECTION
Will Maintain Own Market Places to Increase Incomes.
NEWARK, March 5.—The farmers of Centerville have banded together into an organization known as the "Washington Township Producers' Association." The purpose of the body is shown by their motto, "Co-operation and Mutual Protection between Producers and Consumers."

The members propose to raise, grow and sell (wholesale and retail), all perishable products, including fruit, vegetables, eggs, poultry, grain, dairy products, etc., and they will establish and maintain a suitable market place in the city of San Francisco for the sale of this kind of produce.
The officers chosen at the meeting are as follows: President, J. C. Shinn, Niles, city representative, I. B. Terrell of Newark; secretary, J. T. Terrell of Irvington; treasurer, G. P. Lowrie of Centerville.

The city market will be in charge of the city agent, experienced salesmen will be engaged and all orders promptly filled.
No commission will be charged for handling produce, the owner will receive whatever his produce sells for, but the producer must be a member of the association.
The association will endeavor to keep the market supplied with every seasonable commodity and will fill all orders either from the market stall, or direct from the grower.

Some twenty-eight of the larger producers from Warm Springs, Irvington, Niles, Centerville, Decoto, Alameda, Newark and Arden have joined the entire township is being canvassed for membership. All producers are eligible.
The city has been in need of an institution of this kind for many years, and by aid of the free markets now being established, the consumers will soon be able to make purchases direct from the producer with mutual benefit.

SAYS HUSBY ONLY SHOWED SATURDAY AND SUNDAYS
Wife of Joseph Phillips, Barber, Obtains Divorce.

Joseph Phillips, a barber, worked only on Saturdays and Sundays morning, and not always then, according to his wife, Marie, to whom Judge Ellsworth granted an interlocutory decree of divorce today on the grounds of habitual intemperance and failure to provide. The rest of the time he was too drunk to hold a razor, Mrs. Phillips testified.
He drank every kind of liquor, according to his wife, and all the time, it was only occasionally that he sobered up sufficiently on Saturdays, and then it was only that he might make enough money to buy more liquor. His wife never got any of it, she declared.

MRS. A. HART M'KEE

WIFE'S MAIDS SWEAR TO MISCONDUCT OF M'KEE

Husband Charged With Feasting While Spouse Lived in Want.

PARIS, March 5.—Mrs. A. Hart McKee had her inning in her divorce proceedings begun yesterday. Maitre Barbour, one of the ablest French lawyers, described the iniquities of which his client accuses her husband, the Pittsburg millionaire's son who figured prominently in the Phillips divorce case before he married the dashing widow of Hugh Travis of California in Philadelphia in 1925.

"This man," said Barbour, "more than once tied a cord around his wife's neck and tried to drag her across the room."

Alleges Lovemaking.
"McKee had the habit of walking around his wife's home scantily clad. Or, if he pleased to clothe himself, it was in some fantastic costume; perhaps his pajamas. In this garb he would go to the kitchen and make fervid love to the maids."

"McKee always carried a revolver, always slept with it under his pillow, and often threatened to take his wife's life unless she gave him money."
"At Monte Carlo he lost sums like $15,000 in a single night. Madame McKee never grumbled, but her husband took her money to stake it and even compelled her to sign checks. He even signed her name to checks."

"And while McKee was spending his wife's money she suffered for food. Even when she was expecting his child she had to live for two days on gherkins and state cheese. He gave banquets while she remained at home without money enough to buy a meal."

Charges Brutality.
"He worked on her feelings by being grossly cruel to her child. Hugh, the posthumous babe of her first husband, who lived in terror of his stepfather. Two hours before his own child was born McKee refused to telephone for a physician and left the room, left his wife suffering the agony which only a woman can know. She dragged herself to the telephone and called a doctor."

"McKee miscondacted himself with the servants. Miss West, a most respectable English governess, has made an affidavit describing his conduct toward her. So has Henriette, who was Madame McKee's maid for years. She tells how this man struck his wife down."

Club Denounces Attack on Supervisor as Unjust
Whereas, in the opinion of the members of the Highland Improvement Club, an injustice has been done Supervisor W. E. Bridge by an article printed in the San Francisco Call of February 27th, in reference to his appearance before the club on Tuesday night last.

Resolved, that it be resolved by this club, that it protests most emphatically against the misstatement in said article regarding the stand taken by Mr. Bridge before the club, that the members are entirely satisfied that he is working to the best of his ability for the interests of this locality and his entire district, and that we have faith and confidence in his honesty and integrity and believe that it is his purpose to do the very best possible to serve the interests of his constituents.

Resolved, further, that we regret that any member of this club could send out a report so at variance with the facts and that we protest against such action as being detrimental to the best interests of the club, and a direct knock at this locality, as well as being an unjust criticism of our worthy Supervisor. That the matter of annexation was not, nor has not been taken up by this club at any of its meetings in any form.

Resolved, that a copy of above resolution be sent to Mr. Bridge, also to the Call and other daily papers for publication.

AGED MAN DRINKS ACID AND DIES

"I'll Kill Myself Before the Day is Over" Tells Wife—Carries Out Threat.

Philip Fleckinger, 60 years old, ended his life in a barn at the rear of his home, 1093 Thirtieth street, late yesterday afternoon by drinking carbolic acid. He was found in a dying condition by his wife, who was attracted to the barn by his groans.

He was removed to the receiving hospital for treatment, but succumbed despite medical attention. The body was removed to the morgue, where an inquest will be held.
An injury received in a powder explosion at Pinole, fifteen years ago, was the indirect cause that prompted Fleckinger to end his life. The injury had affected his brain and so weakened his constitution that he was seized with disease, being a sufferer from rheumatism for years. He had threatened to end his life on many occasions, and yesterday told his wife that "he was going to kill himself before the day was over." She believed his threat to die an idle one until she found him dying.

Fleckinger was possessed of considerable property in this city and for the past fifteen years had lived upon the interest of his investments. While employed at the Pinole Powder Works, he was injured by the explosion which resulted in much suffering and finally in suicide.

RACES TEMPT TOO MANY GIRLS AND WOMEN, SAYS JUDGE SMITH

Fines Pool-Seller $300; Will Try to Stop Practice

"There is entirely too much pool-selling on the races going on in Oakland. Not only the men are taking a liking at the game, but even women, boys and girls are tempted to put their mite down on the result of a horse race. It is time this practice is stopped."

Such was the statement made in open court this morning by Police Judge Smith in sentencing August Salminen, a San Pablo barber, to pay a fine of $300 for selling pools on the races within the city limits, he having been convicted yesterday by Judge Smith in sentencing the convicted man was to act not only against Salminen, but was intended by him as a warning to others who are openly violating the law in this city in regard to selling pools on the races.

Salminen is in jail in lieu of the money with which to pay his fine, but it is intimated that he will be given assistance by his friends. After court Judge Smith said that within the past few days he had seen two girls between the age of 15 and 16 years of age, walk into a cigar store and place bets.

The judge expressed himself this morning as being of the opinion that pool-selling should be suppressed and said his fines in cases of convictions would be far from light.

FACES DEATH IN DEADLY GAS; SAVES INJURED MAN

Sailor Hero Makes a Very Daring Rescue

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Forma Sosa, one of the coolies on the steamer Nebraska, lying at Greenwich street wharf, was seriously injured, and almost suffocated to death at 2:30 o'clock this morning as the result of falling into the hold of the vessel.

All hands were engaged this morning in fumigating the steamer, and while the deadly sulphur fumes were circulating around the hold, the Chinese stumbled upon the specter, and plunged headlong through it was known that he must be seriously hurt, and liable to die from the fumes, no one of the sailors dared go down to rescue him for some time, and it was an hour later before one of the sailors, braver than the rest, found his way to the side of the injured man.

A rope was placed around him and he was hoisted to the deck, and thence removed to the Harbor Emergency hospital. The surgeons found that besides suffocation he was suffering from a badly broken hip, a broken heel, several lacerated wounds, the scalp and numerous bruises. Little hope is entertained for his recovery.

Many of San Francisco. Treadwell says the Japanese told him he had come to America as a spy, but had been unable to get the information required.

The offer, Treadwell says, was made in a Japanese restaurant on Richards street, the Japanese quarter, on Tuesday. Treadwell enlisted yesterday as a private in the One Hundred and Fifth Heavy Artillery, which at present has charge of the fortification at San Francisco. According to Treadwell, the Japanese in making the offer, asked him to enlist in the coast artillery. Treadwell lived eight years in Japan and has seen service in the Philippines.

NEW EASTER BONNETS HAVE REACHED NEW YORK DEPOTS

NEW YORK, March 5.—New York yesterday received its first consignment of this year's Easter bonnets. They came on the liner Oceanic and more than 100 customs inspectors, double the number that have been at the docks during the winter season, were present when the steamer came alongside the pier. A large number of New York milliners who have been in Paris for some weeks, returned on the Oceanic, accompanying the bonnets. Inspection of the lot of the millinery was an impressive sight, as more than fifty large trunks, containing imported Paris hats and bonnets went sent to the appraisers' stores, where a special examination will be made.

EFFINGHAM, Ill., March 5.—Lieutenant-Governor Lawrence V. Sherman was married yesterday in Montrose, a village near Effingham, to Miss Mary Estelle Splitter, aged 23 years, whom he has known since she was a child, he being 27 years her senior. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman are on their way to Colorado Springs, to El Paso, to Old Mexico and to Hawaii.

Mrs. Sherman is a graduate of the Illinois Woman's College at Jacksonville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. S. Hall of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Montrose at the home of the bride.

NOT GOOD POLICY
Hundreds Have Thrown Away Money.
It is not good policy to limit your advertising for boarders of roomers by neglecting the great body of people in this city who are reached only through an ad. in THE TRIBUNE.
There are many things which contribute to making it vexatious and unprofitable to rent rooms or keep boarders. You probably know what most of them are. Then you have probably experienced the doubtful satisfaction of having a vacant room week after week, and a few less people at the table than you should have had. But it may not have occurred to you that the remedy for these things is adequate publicity—a want ad. campaign so regulated that there shall always be a demand for your rooms, and for places at your tables. It is needless to say that in such a want advertising campaign you need not use any other medium than this one. And it is also needless to add that such a want advertising campaign in this city is absolutely impossible unless you do use THE TRIBUNE.

If you are in the business for profit—either for a livelihood or for pocket-money—then THE TRIBUNE is ready to co-operate with you.

This is the outcome of a court-martial wherein Lieutenant Millar was charged with duplicating his pay accounts. The trial at the Presidio lasted two days; the defendant pleaded guilty, with the qualification that he had no intent to defraud, and no witnesses were called.

The court found the defendant guilty and ordered him dismissed from the service, these findings being approved at Washington and just made public by the War Department.

WHY SO WEAK?

Kidney Troubles May Be Sapping Your Life Away. Oakland People Have Learned This Fact.

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes weak, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, look to the kidneys for the cause of it all. Keep the kidneys well and they will keep the rest of the body well. Kidney Pills cure such kidneys and keep them well.

Mrs. J. E. Wilson, 2322 Cedar street, Berkeley, Cal., says: "I do not know what I would have done had it not been for the little pills I received from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had been suffering from backache and lumbago for months and no matter what I did, I could not get relief. I would get up in the morning feeling so weak and tired that it was an effort to do my housework. I felt miserable all the time. I would have headaches and dizzy spells until I was almost distracted. My kidneys were also disordered and caused me much annoyance. At times I would have sharp twinges of rheumatism in my back and limbs. I was recommended by people to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and as they were highly recommended by people whom I knew, I decided to try them. The result was marvelous, for in less than two weeks I was feeling like a new woman. The pains in my back and hips have nearly disappeared and my kidneys now act in their normal manner. It is a pleasure to recommend a remedy of such sterling worth as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

MAD WOMAN REFUSES FOOD

She Would Not Eat for 63 Days; Begs to Be Murdered.

For nine weeks Mrs. Marie Mendonca, of 711 Henry street was given food only by the strenuous efforts of her husband, and in spite of herself. She wished to die, and when her husband would not kill her, as she directed, and watched her so closely that her own attempts at suicide were unavailing, she tried to end her life by starving herself, according to her husband, J. Mendonca, who brought her to the detention ward of the receiving hospital this morning to await an examination as to her sanity.

A short time ago Mrs. Mendonca tried to commit suicide by saturating her hair with coal oil and setting fire to it. Her husband detected her in the act just in time and saved her from serious injury by throwing a blanket about her head and extinguishing the blaze.

Watched Constable. After that he watched her constantly, taking away from her knives and other things with which she wished to kill herself. She begged him to permit her to end her life, but he refused to do so. Then she refused food. Mendonca was compelled daily to force her jaw apart and pour liquid food down her throat.

He had her under the care of a physician all this time, hoping that her insanity might be cured, but at last he decided that the attempt was useless and had her brought to the receiving hospital. She will be examined before Judge Ellis tomorrow.

THUS THREATEN TO SLAY POLICE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Policeman Frank J. Egan of the Mission station had an exciting experience with three burglars he encountered dividing their spoils at the corner of Seventeenth and Capp streets at 1:30 o'clock this morning. At the policeman's approach one of the men drew a revolver and told him if he came nearer he would "fill him full of lead."

The men thereupon moved off slowly and Egan, drawing his own weapon, called upon them to halt. Instead of doing so, however, they increased their speed, and the officer fired two shots in an effort to bring them down, but without success.

After a chase of several blocks he was joined by Policeman Furman, but the fugitives had separated and the officers were unable to locate them. Returning to the place of the chase, Egan found one full box and a half of cigars. It is the theory of the police that the men had just finished committing a burglary when the policeman came upon them.

RESTAURANT KEPT PROTECTED HIS MONEY AT RISK OF LIFE

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Struggling in the grasp of two masked robbers, one of whom held a loaded revolver, and fighting for possession of the weapon, Thomas Chuchas at length succeeded in protecting his life and valuables at an early hour this morning, but only after the murderous thugs had fired a shot at him, which barely missed his head.

At 1:15 a. m., when Chuchas was alone in his restaurant at 201 Stuart street, he heard some one open the door. Looking around and expecting to see some customers, he found himself facing two masked thugs, one of whom held a pistol and ordered him to throw up his hands.

Instead of complying with the request, Chuchas sprang forward and grappled the muzzle of the revolver. Immediately a deadly struggle took place. The unarmed robber went to the assistance of his companion, and attempted to beat Chuchas into submission. The latter is very strong, however, and was able to put up a good battle.

At length his antagonists became too much for him and the robbers succeeded in getting the revolver free from his grasp. Instantly a shot rang out and Chuchas felt a sting and thought he had been shot in the hand. It subsequently developed, however, that he had been only burned by powder, and that the bullet had imbedded itself in the wall, having passed within half an inch of his head.

Chuchas, however, did not let the robbers escape. He pointed out to the school of this city have made their way in order from burning school houses. While admitting that there was always danger of fire and that such danger presented itself when least expected, he felt reasonably sure that the school buildings and the thoroughness of the fire drills practiced in the schools, that there was but slight reason to believe that such a tragedy was possible in the schools of this city.

Members of the Oakland Board of Education see a far reaching lesson in the horrible tragedy in the suburb of North Colma, Cal., yesterday when 170 helpless school children were hemmed in by fire and smoke and their innocent lives snuffed out in the presence of hundreds of helpless and horrified spectators.

Assistant City Superintendent of Schools York said this morning that every precaution is taken to prevent just such a catastrophe which could mean the death of hundreds of children. He pointed out that all of the city schools are provided with wide and numerous exits; that the school children are given fire drills at least twice a month, and that the children of the school of this city have made their way in order from burning school houses. While admitting that there was always danger of fire and that such danger presented itself when least expected, he felt reasonably sure that the school buildings and the thoroughness of the fire drills practiced in the schools, that there was but slight reason to believe that such a tragedy was possible in the schools of this city.

Did Mr. Ruef tell you that Mr. Tevis had promised money for your vote? "No, sir, he never said that Tevis was to pay any money."

In their effort to show that W. S. Tevis had been mixed up in a corrupt effort to induce the supervisors to vote for the acceptance of the Bay Cities Water Company project, the battery of attorneys for the defense failed in every respect. The most the defendants were able to show was that Wilson had been accidentally met by Tevis on Fillmore street a few days after the great fire of 1906 and that then, Ruef had introduced him to Tevis.

Talked With Ruef. Wilson declared that the only talk which he had on the subject of the water project was with Ruef and that all that man had said on the subject was that there was "to be something handsome in it for us." Wilson could not say what the word "handsome" meant, but he said that the defendants in their attempt to have him connect W. S. Tevis with the deal in question.

Spreckels on Hand. Today Rudolph Spreckels entered the court room for the purpose of watching the progress of the case, the expense of which he is financing. He had been preceded by but a few minutes by "Big" Jim Gallagher, the former board of supervisors, who is now ready to testify to his own wrong doings in order that others may suffer.

Failed to Connect. This was objected to, but the objection was overruled and Wilson answered: "Why did you resign from the board of supervisors?"

MAN MURDERED, ROBBED; BODY THROWN INTO BAY

Autopsy Held on Patrick Cominsky; Disappeared Months Ago.

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—An examination of the body of Patrick Cominsky, which was found yesterday in the bay on Marin shore, has proved beyond a doubt that the former well-to-do saloonkeeper of East street was slain by a bullet fired from a .38 Smith & Wesson revolver, which was found in the bay with the body.

The autopsy showed that Cominsky had been struck a blow with some blunt instrument, shattering the jaw and knocking out four teeth. The theory of the police is that the blow did not cause the man's death, but that he was rendered unconscious, robbed and thrown into the bay.

ANOTHER BOODLING SUPERVISOR CALLED TO AID OF BULLETIN

Defense Is Riddled in Collusive Suit

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Ex-supervisor Wilson, one of the former boodling board of supervisors, was on the witness stand for the defendant at the opening of the Bulletin's collusive suit this morning, before Judge Dooling in Judge Dooling's court.

Wilson was expected to prove that he had a conversation with W. S. Tevis which involved the tender of money for the adoption of the Bay Cities Water company proposition in article which of supervisors. The witness, however, declared that he had never spoken to Tevis, but once, and that on that occasion Tevis had said nothing about paying money for any vote by members of the board of supervisors for the adoption of the Bay Cities Water company project.

He recalled, on cross examination, that Mr. Tevis had appeared before the board and that Mr. Tevis had made an emphatic denial of ever having made any improper offer to any supervisor for support of the Bay Cities Water project. This statement, Wilson declared, was made in reply to an article which D. Phelan had published in the Bulletin.

Wilson said he had resigned from the board of supervisors and is prompted quite a lively series of questions by Cook for the prosecution.

Failed to Connect. This was objected to, but the objection was overruled and Wilson answered: "I was elected railroad commissioner."

"Are you railroad commissioner now?" "No, sir," with some hesitancy.

"I can't remember it," laughed Mr. Dockeller.

"Then forget it," chuckled Mr. Kangas. Amid the laughter and applause of the men, the two explorers returned to the telegraph office and sent a verbatim report of this conversation, with its unexpected turns of humor and its sparkling repartee, to all the papers in the country.

PROSECUTORS COERCED HIM, SWEARS ABE RUEF

States Gallagher Was an Immunity Agent

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—In a long affidavit filed with the county clerk last night to supplement the contents of which are raised charges of bribery and conspiracy against the late Attorney General, Ruef, who was indicted for conspiracy in the graft prosecution, Abraham Ruef brings out several new facts in connection with his pact with the prosecution.

One of these is that big Jim Gallagher, who admitted before the Oliver grand jury that he charged the boulder grand jury a fee for distributing bribe money, and Andrew M. Wilson, who was forced to resign from the railroad commission, had been sent to him as agent for the graft prosecution to arrange for his immunity.

Accuses Prosecutors.

Ruef says he refused to be inveigled by either of these men, and sent them back to the prosecution. He also alleges in his affidavit that District Attorney Langdon and Assistant District Attorney Heney forced him to withdraw his application to the Superior Court for his release on bail and caused him to go from the custody of Elmer Biggy to Sheriff O'Neil before they consented to sign the immunity contract.

The affidavit is also interesting because of the representation it contains of the efforts made by the prosecution to have Ruef testify against the officers of the United Railroads.

Yesterday afternoon Ruef's counsel obtained an order from Superior Judge Buck of Department No. 4 for the taking of depositions of persons associated in the prosecution in connection with the civil proceedings he has brought to recover the money he alleges he was forced to pay for his maintenance while kept in his private prison on Fillmore street.

Depositions Taken.

Biggy's deposition will be taken on Friday, and those of Judge Dunne, District Attorney Langdon, Detective Burns, Rudolph Spreckels and Heney on subsequent days in about the order named. The notes before whom they will be taken is Senator Gus Hartman, author of the defeat of anti-prize-fight bill at the last session of the legislature.

In the affidavit filed last night Ruef says:

"That on the 8th day of March, 1907, as in other affidavits on file herein in this court, stated, this affiant was taken into custody by William J. Biggy, an alias appointed by Department No. 6 of this court, and remained in the custody of said elisor until January 8, 1908.

Visit Arranged by Burns.

"That in the month of March, 1907, the affiant was detained at the Little St. Francis Hotel in the city and county of San Francisco, in close confinement, and while there in the said month of March, 1907, William J. Burns, then and now special agent of District Attorney Langdon, did advise and inform this affiant that he would be called upon by James L. Gallagher and Andrew M. Wilson, then supervisors of the city and county of San Francisco, and did direct William J. Biggy, the said elisor, in the presence of this affiant, to permit said James L. Gallagher and said Andrew M. Wilson to see the affiant.

"Shortly thereafter said James L. Gallagher and said Andrew M. Wilson called upon this affiant at his place of detention and were permitted to hold private consultation with this affiant.

Offers of Immunity.

"And said James L. Gallagher did advise and inform this affiant that he had seen Mr. Rudolph Spreckels, William J. Burns, Francis J. Heney or some of all of them, and said Andrew M. Wilson did inform this affiant that he had seen Francis J. Heney, William J. Burns and William H. Langdon or some of all of them, and that the said Andrew M. Wilson and said James L. Gallagher had made certain statements to the prosecution, which involved the said affiant, in commission of offenses against the laws of the State of California, and that they had been promised and guaranteed by said Rudolph Spreckels, said William J. Burns, said William H. Langdon and said Francis J. Heney full and complete immunity; that in said statements they advised and told this affiant that they had involved this affiant, but that they did not make said statements until they had been promised by said district attorney and said assistant district attorney that if this affiant would tell what he knew of and concerning the granting of the trolley franchise mentioned in indictment No. 823 and other matters and things concerning which the said district attorney and the said assistant district attorney were inquiring into that this affiant would be granted full and complete immunity.

"And they said they were authorized by the district attorney and Francis J. Heney and William J. Burns and Rudolph Spreckels to offer this affiant full and complete immunity against prosecution for any and all offenses against the laws of the State of California with which this affiant was concerned, if any, concerning the passage of said trolley franchise and concerning all other so-called graft cases."

Ruef's affidavit recites that he refused to avail himself of the offers of Gallagher and Wilson, and that Burns then began to pay him frequent visits. The affidavit continues:

"That on May 8, 1907, and for some days prior thereto there was pending in the Supreme Court of San Francisco an application by this affiant in which and by which this affiant did seek admission to bail, but thereafter having been denied him by Department No. 6 of the Superior Court. . . . By the said application this affiant did also contend that he should be taken from the custody of the said William J. Biggy as an officer and that if bail should be refused this affiant should be committed to the custody of the sheriff. . . . That the said application was opposed by the said William H. Langdon and the said Francis J. Heney, and that the same was pending at all times from a date prior to May 8, 1907, until and including May 14, 1907.

Proposition Rejected.
That this affiant rejected the offer of the said William J. Burns. That thereafter this affiant entered into the said contract of immunity hereinafter referred to, relying upon the promises therein contained and the promises and assurances hereinafter alluded to. . . . And acting as heretofore stated, this affiant did enter said plea of guilty; that at the time of the entry of said plea said proceedings in the Superior Court heretofore mentioned were pending.

"That on the 16th day of May, 1907, and after he had entered said plea and after the Superior Court had made an order continuing the said matter until said affiant for sentence said William H. Langdon and said William J. Burns did call upon this affiant at the place where he was then detained by the elisor and did request of this affiant that a stipulation dismissing the said application then pending in the Supreme Court and hereinafter mentioned, that said William J. Burns and said William H. Langdon were accompanied by Frank J. Murphy and Charles H. Fairall, and said affiant was requested by said William H. Langdon to stipulate that the proceedings in the Supreme Court above referred to be dismissed.

Agreed to Dismissal.

"That said Frank J. Murphy and Charles H. Fairall are attorneys at law and were representing me in the matter of my defense in said cause No. 365, and also in the proceedings then pending in the Supreme Court.

"That pursuant to the request of the said William H. Langdon and relying upon said immunity contract and the promises, agreements and assurances theretofore given to me by the said district attorney, the said assistant district attorney and the other persons hereinbefore mentioned I did write a stipulation and request dismissing said application in the Supreme Court which stipulation was by me delivered on the 15th day of May, 1907, to the said William H. Langdon, and my said attorneys Frank J. Murphy and Charles H. Fairall, were by me requested and directed to proceed with Mr. Langdon and cause said proceedings to be dismissed.

Relied on Immunity Contract.
"And I do further state that the said William H. Langdon did act upon said stipulation and on the 15th day of May, 1907, pursuant to said stipulation, the said proceedings were dismissed by the Supreme Court. . . . That I would not have entered into said stipulation nor would I have dismissed said proceedings nor would I have ceased to demand my right for bail and my right to be placed in the custody of the sheriff in the event that bail should be refused me except for the fact that I implicitly relied upon the said immunity contract and said promises and assurances of William H. Langdon, Francis J. Heney, William J. Burns, Rudolph Spreckels, Judge Frank H. Dunne, Judge William P. Lawlor, Rev. Jacob Nieto and Rev. Bernard Kaplan, and by said act I believed that I was in fact carrying out the spirit of said immunity contract and arrangement."

BOTH.
"I put a portable stove on the ice and figured I'd peddle heat to the skaters."

"Good scheme if you had a good stove."

"I did, but it fell through."

"That on the 8th day of March, 1907, as in other affidavits on file herein in this court, stated, this affiant was taken into custody by William J. Biggy, an alias appointed by Department No. 6 of this court, and remained in the custody of said elisor until January 8, 1908.

"That in the month of March, 1907, the affiant was detained at the Little St. Francis Hotel in the city and county of San Francisco, in close confinement, and while there in the said month of March, 1907, William J. Burns, then and now special agent of District Attorney Langdon, did advise and inform this affiant that he would be called upon by James L. Gallagher and Andrew M. Wilson, then supervisors of the city and county of San Francisco, and did direct William J. Biggy, the said elisor, in the presence of this affiant, to permit said James L. Gallagher and said Andrew M. Wilson to see the affiant.

"Shortly thereafter said James L. Gallagher and said Andrew M. Wilson called upon this affiant at his place of detention and were permitted to hold private consultation with this affiant.

"And said James L. Gallagher did advise and inform this affiant that he had seen Mr. Rudolph Spreckels, William J. Burns, Francis J. Heney or some of all of them, and said Andrew M. Wilson did inform this affiant that he had seen Francis J. Heney, William J. Burns and William H. Langdon or some of all of them, and that the said Andrew M. Wilson and said James L. PANAMA CANAL IS ONE-FIFTH DONE

If Goethals Keeps Up Lick Waterway Will be Completed in Three Years.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Up to March 1, 28,414,834 cubic yards of excavation had been taken from the Panama canal route. This is just one-fifth of the entire amount, 142,000,000 cubic yards that was estimated May 1, 1904, would be required to be excavated to complete the waterway. Col. Goethals, U. S. A. engineer, is in charge.

Should the work proceed at the present rate, it is estimated the remaining excavation will be completed in three years.

However, it is understood that the work of excavation will not be pushed to completion, but that meanwhile construction of the locks will proceed to finish all parts of the canal construction at about the same time.

Notwithstanding that there were two less working days in February than in January, the amount of excavation on the canal was 783,212 cubic yards greater, the total excavation for February being 2,645,880 cubic yards.

AGREE TO ANNEX THE CONGO STATE

King Leopold and Government Reach Terms on the Question.

BRUSSELS, March 5.—King Leopold and the Belgian government have come to a complete agreement on the question of the annexation of the Congo Free State. It is stated in official circles that an agreement was made possible by an important concession by the king in consenting that the parliament might have control of the Congo budget in addition to the king secured for Belgium the magnificent domain of Cape Ferrat in the south of France, reserving for himself the use of it during his lifetime.

The government, on its part, agrees to propose that the chambers vote a special fund to carry out certain undertakings in the Congo and in Belgium, which fund will not exceed $12,000,000, and at the same time a special annual credit of $600,000 will be included in the Congo budget for fifteen years for the construction of hospitals and other institutions in the Congo.

FIRST BALL A SUCCESS.

The first annual ball of Oakland Chapter American Institute of Banking, given Tuesday night in Maple Hall, proved a delightful success, both socially and financially. It netted a large sum to Oakland Chapter.

The affair was arranged by John P. Hessler, Lee V. Belden and Charles J. Feenan. Kenneth A. Milligan, secretary of the chapter, rendered valuable service in assisting the arrangement committee.

March in California.

March has entered this State this year like a lion, which means, if the conditions of the old adage are fulfilled, it will pass out like a lamb. Not in many years has the month opened with such a numerous series of violent gales extending all along the California coast, accompanied by heavy rain showers which have drenched the State from one end to the other, guaranteeing abundant crops to all those who are engaged in the tillage of the soil. A season of prosperity is, therefore, assured by the favorable advent of March, for, while it comes in a boisterous mood, it is unaccompanied by the evil and unwelcome association of biting frosts or searing north winds to shrivel the swelling buds of the orchard or retard the growth of the tender blades of sprouting grain.

The rainy season has been so far one of the most remarkable the State has experienced in many years past. The rainfall has barely been up to the normal anywhere, and in many parts it is considerably below normal at date. But the precipitation has been so evenly distributed throughout the season that the effect in general has been more beneficial than has followed an abnormal downpour in many preceding seasons. The rainfall this year has been of such a nature that there has been practically no waste. The soil has absorbed the bulk of it and is now as a rule thoroughly saturated throughout the major part of the State. Ordinarily in seasons of abnormal precipitation the watercourses are choked with the excessive drainage, the floors of the great valleys are flooded and no benefit is derived by the agriculturist from the surplus.

Those expert graft hunters, Burns and Biggy, know a good thing when they see it. Both put their sons on the public payroll as members of Ruff's suite at the Maison de Amite on Fillmore street. It is alleged that one of Burns' sons was attending public school while drawing $5 a day as a Ruff guardian. This bit of financiering must have greatly added to the zest and hilarity of the banquets which the Burns, Biggy and Ruff families held in celebration of the conviction of Schmitz. The good fellowship and sympathetic spirit of confraternity displayed at these Lucullan feasts furnish one of the exhilarating chapters of the history of the graft crusade. In human interest the display is only surpassed by the mutual admiration and respect that has sprung up between Rudolph Spreckels and Big Jim Gallagher.

The Chronicle prints a list of Southern States having an aggregate of 280 votes in the Republican national convention, which it says are doubtful as between Foraker and Taft. It appears hard to make the Chronicle understand that Foraker is down and out. He will get no votes from the South or anywhere else. The only support he has thus far gained comes from a boating delegation in Florida which will never be seated in the convention. At least 540 votes on the first ballot can now be counted for Taft with reasonable certainty. It is all over but the shouting. The same thing is to be said of the Democratic situation. It is all Bryan.

The more the American people learn of the Philippines and what Secretary Taft has done there in his championship of these islands and their interests the better they grow to like Taft. Congressional committees have been importuned time and time again by Secretary Taft for a lower tariff rate on sugar and tobacco grown there. With equal persistence he has sought a modification or even abandonment of the useless experiment of applying the American coastwise trading laws to the distant islands. Only the other day he pleaded with a Senate committee against the exclusion of foreign ships from the trade between the Philippines and American ports.

Granting a monopoly to a few ships for the carrying trade must necessarily bring about a material increase in rates and be followed by the cutting down of imports and exports and subsequent loss. By permitting trade to grow there is a chance for the Filipinos to prosper. Secretary Taft has the right idea and the people like him the better for the fight he is waging, even if there is an element of danger along political lines.

Governor Gillett is at the national capital for the purpose of urging upon Congress the wisdom and necessity of improving the navigable waters of this State. He appears in Washington as the local advocate of a policy which the President trenchantly advocated for the whole country in a recent message to Congress. His business there is consequently public business entirely divorced from factional or partisan politics, and is a mission, therefore, that should have the endorsement and support of every patriotic citizen of California. We do not believe the Governor is doing factional politics either at the Capitol or the White House. We do not credit the reports sent out from Washington that he has been tale-bearing and backcapping to the President. That sort of business is more in line with the methods and manners of the persons who are assailing him at home while he is at the national capital trying to benefit the State at large.

Last Saturday night a procession paraded the principal business streets of Los Angeles singing "The Marseillaise." The strains of the hymn of the French revolution are soul-stirring and unobjectionable under ordinary conditions; but in these days when anarchy is raising its head, the singing of "The Marseillaise" in a public street procession suggests that the leaders, if not the whole body of the singers, belong to that class of undesirables to whom the Secretary of Commerce and Labor directed attention in the order he issued on Tuesday to the commissioners of immigration and immigration inspectors as proper subjects for investigation and possible deportation.

Hats off to Chief Shippey of the Chicago police department. Were there more people like him there would be less anarchists. He has been a marked man for some time because of his activity against the reds. Yesterday one of these wolves entered his home and tried to shoot up the place, succeeding in wounding the chief, his son and a coachman. Even though shot and stabbed, this plucky man closed with his assailant and in time killed him. Powder and ball is a true antidote for anarchistic poison.

The Iowa man who is laying claim to the throne of Serbia has something to think about. The same news dispatches which told of an attempt to kill the Shah of Persia noted the fact that King Edward smokes cigars eight inches long which cost him 50 cents an inch. It's dangerous to be a shah and it's expensive to be a king.

"Sleep," said Iamblichus, a mystic philosopher, seventeen hundred years ago, "is the nighttime of the body and the daytime of the soul." Then dreams must be the midnight of ambitions.

"Reform," says the Chicago News, "can never fold its arms and feel that its work has been accomplished until the extra water has been squeezed out of stocks and the milk supply."

At least those of the artistic temperament will not accept the old axiom about there being nothing in a name, since it is well known that Giuseppe Verdi, should he become an American, would be plain Joe Green. That would jar the artistic risibilities of those with the elevated brows, now wouldn't it?

Dreams Finds Lost Wedding Ring Missing 5 Years

NEW YORK, March 5.—A vivid dream thrice repeated showed George Chester of West Livingston, N. J., where to find his wife's wedding ring, which she lost nearly five years ago. The dream came to him on Friday night. He saw himself walking along Roseland avenue toward Caldwell. About half way to Caldwell he saw a tree whose branches shaded the road. After resting a while a got up. His foot slipped and displaced a small stone. Then he saw a bright object and picked it up. It was the ring he put on his wife's finger on the happiest of days.

Saturday night the dream was repeated even more realistically, for in it he saw engraved within the gold circlet "G. C. to L. T. W." So he told the dream to Mrs. Chester, who laughed at him. But while he slept Sunday night the same vision appeared to him again.

He was so impressed that, despite his wife's scoffing, he determined to at least find the place three times indicated to him. Yesterday Chester persuaded his wife to drive with him along Roseland avenue. Half way between Roseland and Caldwell he pointed ahead at a tree whose bare branches extended over the road.

"That's the tree," he said, positively.

"Now I'm going to search under it."

In five minutes he had found the ring.

SEVEN SPRING TIPS ON WOMAN'S DRESS

The tunic on the skirt is quite the latest fashion, the revival of an old mode, while the tightly clinging skirt is more the rage than ever.

The attraction of sweet simplicity is well proved this season by the smartness of the tailor-made costumes which are the rage at present among the Parisiennes.

Heather bloom moire is used for petticoats and the material is well suited for something just a trifle less expensive than the silk skirts. Black silk skirts are lace-trimmed and look neat under silk voile dress skirts.

Long narrow vests are appearing on the newest designs in bodices and fancy blouses instead of yokes, although the square hanging yokes bordered with bands of satin still hold their own. These vests are usually carried out in lace braided with a succession of tiny silk-covered buttons finished with eyelets of braid.

Rich golden brown broadcloth was seen neatly combined with white in a jaunty afternoon gown. The jacket was one of the close-fitting cutaway styles, with white vest. The dress was simply trimmed with brown silk braid and the touch of white was shown on the gloves, white wings of the little brown sailor hat and vest. It was decidedly trim looking and suited well the young girl who wore it.

It is certain that tan and brown shoes will be worn again this spring, for the short skirt is going to demand the prettiest of footwear. Some of the tan shoes have uppers of splendid cloth which resemble the finest suede. Velvet tops are seen on the fashionable evening shoes, sometimes in gun-metal shades, and also a peculiar shade of bluish green. Gray is specially smart and will in all probability be worn with the handsome gray spring costumes.

Two colors which harmonize nicely are tan and green. Almost any shade of tan or green will combine with good results. This is fully demonstrated in a neat tan chiffon dress with bands of pale green silk on the skirt and narrow bands on the dainty waist. The waist is made collarless with a tinge of green silk around the edge that exactly matches the edge of the cuffless sleeve-puffs. It is a pretty style and girlish-looking, too. It could be worn with a picture hat of brown or a tan hat green-trimmed.

The marriage of Miss Katherine Bunnell and William Gorrell will take place this evening at the home of the bride's mother in Berkeley. The wedding will be marked by the utmost simplicity and there will be no attendants for either bride or groom. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. R. L. Hosmer, assisted by the Rev. Mrs. Lester.

Miss Bunnell is a graduate of the University of California and is a favorite in college and society circles. Mr. Gorrell is also a graduate of the State University and at present engaged in the practice of law in San Francisco. He is well known in the literary and artistic world.

HUSBAND Becomes Suspicious, Conspires With a Friend and LAYS A TRAP TO CATCH WIFE

NEW YORK, March 5.—The trial of a suit for separation brought by Sarah C. Delaney against Daniel J. Delaney, formerly cashier for Tait J. Taylor & Co., began before Supreme Court Justice Truax. They were married in 1894.

Delaney, who has brought a counter-suit, testified that in the winter of 1906 he let his wife go to a dance while he stayed at home to care for the babies. When she came home under the influence of liquor, he swore, he became suspicious of her, and later, when a friend of his, named Voss, informed him that Mrs. Delaney was inclined to flirt with Voss, he asked Voss to lure Mrs. Delaney on and if possible afford him a chance to sue for a divorce.

In the following February Delaney and another clerk for Taylor & Co., named George F. Griffin, went to Florida. While there Delaney was summoned home by Voss, who said the opportunity was favorable to catch Delaney's wife. Delaney and Griffin came home, and with a third man named Hession, went to Voss's house in the Bronx and hid in a closet in the flat. Voss had told them that Mrs. Delaney would visit the house that night, and when they heard his boots falling to the floor in an adjoining room they were to confront Mrs. Delaney.

Voss went out in search of Mrs. Delaney, his mother, who lived with him, having been conveniently sent out of the way. Shortly afterward he and Mrs. Delaney entered the flat. Delaney said he heard a conversation, some of which was of an amorous nature, and the fall of Voss's shoes. On entering the room he found Mrs. Delaney fully dressed sitting on a couch. Voss decompared, Delaney, flourishing a revolver, cried, "Now I've got you where I want you, Mrs. Delaney." He snatched the pistol out of her husband's hand and threw it outside.

Both Delaney and Griffin testified that Mrs. Delaney pleaded to be forgiven and that she followed her husband into the street, fell on her knees and begged him not to divorce her or tell her parents.

Mrs. Delaney, testifying, denied the latter statement and, explaining her presence in Voss's flat, swore that her husband had introduced him to her and that Voss had told her that his mother was an artist. Before Delaney intended to give them a picture painted by Mrs. Voss, Delaney told her he would like her to accept it. After he had gone to Florida Voss told him he would like her to accept it. After he had gone to Florida Voss told him he would like her to accept it.

Then he kicked off his shoes, which seemed to be loose. Then her husband and his friends rushed into the room. When she had taken the pistol from Delaney, she accompanied him home, where he knocked her unconscious, she swore. They separated, but a priest reunited them. A few months later Delaney left her and she and the children went to her mother's home.

In support of her suit for a separation Mrs. Delaney swore that long before the Voss incident her husband made her life unbearable by his abuse and his habits. Mrs. Abbie Barry of 38 Sutton place, the mother of Mrs. Delaney and her brother and sister corroborated Mrs. Delaney's statements as to her husband's cruelty. Their sons, Johnnie, twelve, and Eddie, nine, told the jury of the mother and of the blows they had seen him inflict. They told how he knocked their mother down once and Johnnie wiped the blood from her face.

And, if she be very clever, she will tip the roses from her hat and dye them. The roses can be dipped in anal-toned dye and shaken out while drying until they finally emerge looking like new. It takes only a short time, and if the roses are expensive it is well worth while.

A distinctive hat of summer is white. But the problem of the white hat is one that destroys the peace of the average woman.

The making of the all white hat is quite an easy matter if one uses the simple things. It is the stiff white hat, with its burden of expensive plumes, that is difficult.

And still another word must be said in favor of the all white hat, which is just now the most desirable dress hat of the season. White is nearly always appropriate; it is universally becoming; it shows wear and tear less than other colors; and if well selected it will do for a full appreciation of the value of at least one nice white hat in her wardrobe.

The clever woman whose hat has grown faded will take off the ribbons and turn them. They will look like new.

Cupid Weeps When the Sleuths Appear Before Parson Arrives

NEW YORK, March 5.—If the parson who had been engaged to marry them had not stopped to look in the shop windows today, Edna Ditzel, seventeen years old, of No. 1230 North Broad street, Elizabeth, N. J., would today be receiving congratulations on the splendid fit of her new name. She had promised Hubert B. Hunter, of No. 43 1-2 Filmore street, Newark, to help him carry his dream of marriage and last night was the time designated for the wedding. All the guests were assembled at the home of Hubert's parents, at the table groined under a two-story and a basement wedding cake awaited the clergyman.

"What under the sun can be keeping him?" queried the girl.

"That's him now," answered Herbert, taking the stairs without touching the steps as the doorbell began jingling.

"Does Miss Ditzel live here?" asked one of two men who stood at the door.

"Yes, yes, this is the house," shouted the girl from the landing above. "Are you the minister? What kept you? Hurry, the soap will be ruined and the folks are starving."

"We're not ministers," said the man. "We're detectives, and we have war-ants for a man named Hunter and a girl named Ditzel. Sorry to interrupt the festivities, but you both better come along."

"Please, please, Mr. Policeman," sobbed Edna, "can't you wait till the clergyman arrives us. He'll be here any minute now and we don't care what you do to us after that."

Hunter voted eye on this proposition, and the guests surrounded the detectives and begged them not to cheat Cupid. The detectives informed the company that the girl's father had secured warrants for herself and her sweetheart and charged her with running away from home and him with inducing her to go. Everybody cried some, and then Hubert and Edna took hold of hands and followed the detectives to Police Headquarters. There was another tearful parting when the lovers were separated and taken to different cells.

"Don't worry, dear," said Hunter. "Everything will be all right in a few days, and my name will keep that long."

Edna told the police that her father wanted her to marry a man she didn't love. She said she left home a week ago, and has been living with Hunter's folks.

COUNT SZECHENYI'S RELATIVES SHOCK AMERICAN WOMEN

On their return from the famous international marriage the famous Hungarian relations of Count Laszlo Szechenyi displayed their exuberant joy over the marriage of their daughter, Countess Szechenyi, to a succession of episodes that kept the passengers amused, but brought no smiles to the faces of Mr. and Mrs. Reggie and Alfred Vanderbilt, who also were on board.

Not did the Americans affiliate with the Czechs in Vanderburgh, where they had their meals, Mr. and Mrs. Reggie and E. A. Crowninshield occupying a table. Alfred Vanderbilt occupied a table. Alfred Vanderbilt occupied a table.

His testimony will be one of the numerous sensations of the long-contested suit for divorce of Frank H. Grossfield, the pioneer in the profession, are heard in the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court next week.

"His testimony will be one of the numerous sensations of the long-contested suit for divorce of Frank H. Grossfield, the pioneer in the profession, are heard in the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court next week."

According to the affidavits of Grossfield, which have been prepared, he was hired for $25 down and $1 a day to make love to Mrs. Herman.

The statement of the hired divorce accelerator, whose regular business is that of a commission merchant in the Washington Market, is in part as follows:

On August 7 a man named Shiffer told me he knew a man who wanted to get rid of his wife, and that if I could make love to her and get her to reciprocate, the man would pay me $25 and $1 a day for expenses.

"He gave me the address of Jacob Herman, No. 50 Clinton street. Herman told me that if I was successful in making love to his wife, and that if I could make love to her and get her to reciprocate, the man would pay me $25 and $1 a day for expenses."

There with witnesses.

Still echoes of the Szechenyi-Vanderbilt wedding immediately after the wedding the silver which made up a large part of the bride's corollie was sent to a prominent silvermith to be marked with the initials G. M. V., as is the custom when the work was half finished.

A man was needed, a man in every sense of the word, one with pleasing personality, strength of character and ability, to organize and make stable the growing order.

So Peter F. Gilroy was called upon and made organizer for the state of California. He believes in the order that does things, whose purpose is the protection of the home, the brotherhood of man, and the remembrance

As state organizer, he has instituted many camps, and to them he has ever been a friend. He is giving his best effort to make April 9th, when Grand Consul Rank arrives, a red letter day for Woodcraft. He has assisted him S. T. Dodson, district organizer, at present helping Oakland 4, and other camps around the bay. Dodson is out for 100 candidates in March. Last Saturday night eighteen new members were received into Oakland camp 84. And that is not all. Oakland camp is out to pass the four-figure mark. Backed by the untiring efforts of the organizer, his assistant, and by the personal efforts of the members, Oakland camp will be able

The White Indian

A white Indian is a sick Indian. When the Indians first saw a white man they were sure he was sick. White skin—sick man was their argument. "Pale-face" is the name they gave us.

In the report from the executive committee of this council, the work of Francis A. D. Gervais was highly commended.

Melrose Rebekahs.—After a short session of the Melrose Lodge No. 10, L. O. O. F., of Melrose, opened its doors to the many friends waiting for the good time in store. In spite of the rain and other drawbacks the hall was filled with a merry crowd who danced the hours away. This lodge gives another dance April 1. It is also getting up a drama.

Ben Hur Court.—Ben Hur Court No. 12, Tribe of Ben Hur, had a good attendance of members and a very enjoyable time in store. Three candidates were present for initiation and several applications for membership were presented. Oakland Court No. 6 will banquet Ben Hur Court No. 12 this Friday evening at Magnolia hall, as the result of a contest between the two courts as to which one could secure the most new members. Ben Hur Court No. 12 won out, hence the treat.

Word has been received from D. W. Gerard, the supreme chief and founder of the Tribe of Ben Hur that he will be in Oakland next week. He was the friend and near neighbor in Crawfordville, Ind., of the late General Lew Wallace, the author of the popular and wonderful book "Ben Hur." A reception will be given the supreme chief and a special initiation of a large number of candidates held while he is here.

Oakland Lodge No. 118, L. O. O. F.—This lodge held its regular weekly meeting Tuesday evening, March 3, J. C. Hitehouse, noble grand, presiding. There was a noticeable large number of the members and quite a large number of visitors were present.

The business of the evening being transacted, the team, under the direction of our worthy drill master, Earl Grand D. A. Price, took the floor and gave a fine display of drill and floor work, introducing some novel and pleasing movements and effects.

Considerable interest is being taken by all of the contest lodges for the initiatory cup which was won in the last contest by Fountain Lodge No. 198, and Oakland Lodge intends to be the next to capture the trophy.

Several speeches were made and Major Baker gave a fine little speech of encouragement on the contest cup, wishing the lodge success. Visitors were heard from and all present spent a very pleasant evening.

Brothers are urged to attend all meetings on time and lend the officers every assistance in the work of making this term both a prosperous and successful one.

An invitation is cordially extended to all visiting brothers in this city. Lodge opens at 7:30 p. m. sharp.

Royal Court.—Oakland Assembly No. 25 met last Thursday evening in the Woodmen building, Worthy Chancellor Faulkner presiding. The Washington Birthday party of the previous Thursday evening was much enjoyed by all present. The affair was in charge of the campaign committee, captains, Court Lady Nelsmith, and Courtier George Troth presided with a little red hatchet tied with their respective colors. The program was also little red hatchet.

Last Thursday evening, after a short business meeting, a whist tournament, given for our friends, was managed by court ladies Eliza Shepard and Sara Rosenberg. There were twenty-five tables and all were pleased with the handsome prizes.

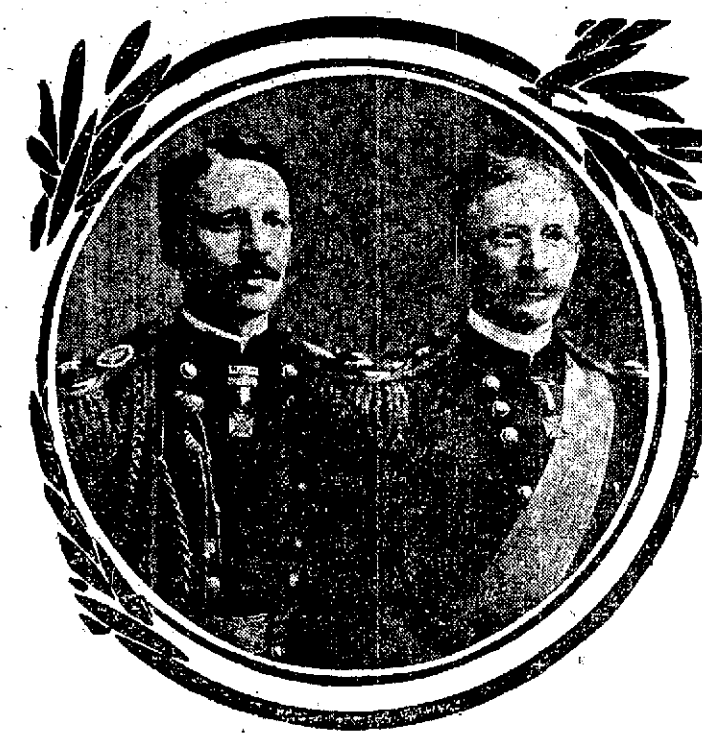

This evening there will be a closed meeting, and after the regular business session the committee will entertain the members by a novel fishermen's party.

The membership campaign is on until June 1, and while no special prize is offered, the losers will banquet the winners, and all are working so hard to be on the winning side that Courtier Crosby, our organizer, is enthusiastic.

Knights of Pythias.—This evening, March 4, Oakland Lodge No. 103, K. O. T. M., will confer the initiatory rank of page on several aspirants for the honors of Pythian Knighthood. The work will be rendered in the inimitable manner characteristic of this lodge.

Past Chancellor E. D. Gans, who a few years ago traveled extensively through the Orient, promises that under the head of good of the order he will give a discourse on that all-absorbing topic of the hour, "Rats and the Bubonic Plague."

baritone of No. 103, is listed for a vocal solo.

Grand Orient.—Alameda Council No. 1.—At the quarterly meeting of this Council Thursday, February 29, twenty-seven Neophytes embraced the opportunity to learn the sacred mysteries of this ancient order and five affiliated by card from sister councils. It was decided to hold the regular annual banquet and high jinks on Thursday night, March 20.

Oakland Lodge, L. O. O. F.—The musical committee of Oakland Lodge No. 163, L. O. O. F., invited members to meet with them at Brother Knight's home last Thursday evening to practice lodge odes. Many members and visitors took advantage of the invitation and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Oakland Lodge is known as the "Mother Lodge" in Templar circles and is living up to its name. Every member seems to have taken a new lease of life for temperance, wit, and peace. Those who attended District lodge on Washington's Birthday, last Monday the regular business of the lodge was hurried through, as something good was on the program.

Brother E. P. Robbins (L. D.) read a paper entitled "The Petaluma Cackler," an account of the experiences of the "Oakland Bunch of Chickens" who visited the chicken country. This paper was much enjoyed.

Several visitors and members gave readings and the following musical program concluded the meeting: Recitation, Brother Wheeler; duet, Brother and Sister Griffin; reading, Brother Earl Campbell; recitation, Brother Evans.

Oakland Hive, Maccabees.—The bees are buzzing in Oakland Hive No. 14 Ladies of the Maccabees, and the committee promises a good time, next Monday evening. There will also be a St. Patrick's party on Monday evening, March 10. All women Maccabees in Oakland should not fail to attend these meetings as there certainly will be a good time.

Oak Leaf No. 36, O. O. U. W.—Members of Oak Leaf No. 36, O. O. U. W., met at Cier's Hall on Monday night. The meeting was delightful and thoroughly enjoyed by those present. Corporate Director James J. O'Toole, told of doings in the Grand lodge, showing a general increase in every department.

Fast Master John Coots interested the brothers with splendid remarks, and made good suggestions for the entertainment committee to act upon.

Forensic orator, Danbrick reported a visitation to San Leandro lodge, where he was warmly received. The hall has been secured for the Oak Leaf minstrel show, which will take place after the first of May.

Fast Master R. M. Holt, of Iowa Lodge No. 227, has been a regular attendant at Oak Leaf. His cheering words and jolly stories are invariably well received.

Mr. Workman L. Covell, one of Oak Leaf's youngest members, shows excellent judgment in disposing of matters within his jurisdiction. Visitors are cordially invited and may be assured of something new and agreeable any Monday night at Oak Leaf No. 35.

Royal Neighbors.—The Royal neighbors of America will hold their tri-lingual State camp in Oakland, on Wednesday, March 11. The invitation to hold this meeting in Oakland was SOOTHES AND HEALS.

Hyomel Medicates the Air You Breathe and Gives Quick Relief in Catarrhal Troubles.

Be wise in time and use Hyomel at the first warning of catarrhal troubles. Do not let the disease extend along the delicate mucous membrane, gradually going from the nose to the throat, thence into the bronchial tubes, and then downward until the lungs are reached and you are in danger of consumption.

Hyomel will cure all curable forms and stages of catarrh. It is so uniformly successful in curing this common yet dangerous disease that the proprietors agree absolutely to refund the money if anyone uses Hyomel and does not get relief.

There is no other treatment for catarrh that is like Hyomel or just as good. None can take its place, none give such quick and sure relief, none so little cost. Its medication is breathed through a pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, thus reaching the most remote cells of the air passages, killing the catarrhal germs and soothing and healing the irritated mucous membrane.

Begin the use of Hyomel today and you will soon find that the offensive breath, the droppings into the throat, the discharge from the nose and all other symptoms of catarrh are overcome and cured.

We positively guarantee Hyomel, for should you buy a complete outfit, price $1.00, and be dissatisfied with results your money will be refunded. Hyomel is sold by druggists everywhere. Write for literature. Booth's Hyomel Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

made through Golden Gate Camp No. 928 and consequently that camp is leaving nothing undone to make the State meeting a success. Arrangements have been made for an informal reception to the delegates on Tuesday evening at Enterprise Hall, Twenty-second and Grove streets.

The State meeting will be held in Loring Hall, 531 Eleventh street, between Washington and Clay streets, and in the evening there will be a class of candidates adopted and the full floor work exemplified, after which a banquet will be served to the delegates and State officers.

Pythian Sisters.—Next Tuesday afternoon, March 10, the Pythian sisters of Loyol Temple No. 47, will give another of their popular whist parties in the Pythian castle. Choice prizes have been selected by the committee and a good time is assured.

Porter Lodge, L. O. O. F.—The "at home" of Porter Lodge was well attended and was a very enjoyable affair. Professor O. C. Ritter of the Reliance Club furnished a very interesting program and the box social created considerable amusement.

Tonight (Thursday) the initiatory degree will be conferred on a class of candidates. Porter expects to win the Athens Camp, W. O. W.—Athens Camp No. 457 held its regular meeting at W. O. W. Hall, Wednesday evening, February 26, with all the officers in their chairs. There was a large attendance. Some very important business was transacted.

Special Organizer, Dodson was present and gave a very interesting talk on various subjects. Neighbor Dodson is doing some good work for Athens Camp in securing new material. Several applications were bal-lotted upon. On social entertainment several neighbors told interesting and humorous stories.

On Wednesday, March 4, a high jinks was the feature of the evening, several boxing contests being slated.

On March 11 something very special is in store for the neighbors who attend. Athens Camp is up and doing this term and wishes all its members to be present at every meeting.

Loyal Temple—Loyal Temple No. 47, Pythian Sisters has been having some very enjoyable meetings lately. Two weeks ago the Sisters had the pleasure of entertaining fifteen members of San Francisco Lodge, K. of P. Last week the members had a social time playing whist. Prizes were won by three Sisters. The regular monthly afternoon whist will be held on Tuesday, March 10.

Oakland Circle—Oakland Circle No. 3, Companions of the Foresters of America, will give a social dance in Foresters' Hall at Thirteenth and Clay streets on Saturday evening, March 14. An excellent union orchestra will render the music.

Forest Circle—Forest Circle No. 122, Ancient Order of Foresters, gave a tag and letter dance at Foresters' Hall, Thirteenth and Clay streets Tuesday evening and a good time was had by those attending. Prizes were given to the worst dressed woman and gentleman. Fines of one cent were charged those wearing good clothes.

Benefit Whist.—The monthly whist tournament of the Fruitvale Whist Club, for the benefit of St. Elizabeth's Church will be held on Tuesday evening, March 3, in St. Elizabeth's Hall, Bray avenue. Prizes will be distributed to the winners.

Minneconyou Tribe.—Minneconyou Tribe No. 202 L. O. R. M., the youngest in Alameda county, is progressing splendidly. With the change in meeting night to Thursday, and the removal to Hall No. 2 in Castle Hall, a greatly increased attendance is bound to ensue.

There will soon be another large initiation of members which will make an era in the growth of the order in this locality. All the members are enthusiastic and are bringing in applications in numbers.

This tribe is remarkable in the fact that it already has a fairly good number of trained debaters and men who have been to the front in deliberative assemblies. With such a membership, the meetings never lag but are always interesting.

Minneconyou hold a large initiation for a young tribe on the 15th of last month, adopting nineteen new members. After the adoption the entire tribe repaired to B. T. C. headquarters where they enjoyed a banquet, enlivened by speeches and songs.

KYMIRIC CLUB

HOLDS BANQUET

Welsh Art and Letters Talked at Annual Feast.SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—The Kymiric Club of California held its annual banquet at the St. Germain on Golden Gate avenue on Tuesday night, about thirty being present.The club is devoted to the fostering of Welsh literature, art and music and it has made a specialty for several years of an interesting and distinguished Welsh-men and Welshwomen visiting this part of the State. At all of these gatherings there is usually a set program of toasts and musical selections rotating around some special theme chosen for the occasion.Last night was given up chiefly to business, as the club has developed to that point where it became necessary to reorganize it on a broader basis than that on which it has heretofore been carried.

Transact Business.

Professor Thomas Price, the president of the club, acted as toastmaster. A draft of a constitution was referred to a special committee. In all probability it will be reported back and adopted in the form submitted. If so it provides for a limited membership of fifty, a waiting list of applicants for admission to vacancies, a board of directors or governors who will control all applications, and the right to receive gifts of books, works of art, or any other form of property. The latter feature excited much interest and brought out the fact that several of the members of the club were ready to make donations of books in English and Welsh, relating to Wales, its people and its literature.
The club is now segregating many hundred volumes which, when brought together, will constitute a good nucleus for a splendid Welsh library.

Only for Members.

The latter will be reserved exclusively for the use of the members of the club and their guests. Most of the speechmaking of the evening related to the work the club was doing and to plans mapped out for the future. It came out during the evening that Professor Jenkins Lloyd Jones of Chicago will reach the State this week and is under engagement to give musical vocal and instrumental selections on March 8. Later the professor, who is recognized as one of the brainiest men in the mid-West, will be entertained by the Kymiric Club if his engagements will permit such an arrangement. Welsh musical (vocal and instrumental) selections were interspersed during the evening's proceedings, which were brought to a close before midnight.

Don't Take the Risk.

When you have a bad cough or cold don't let it drag along until it becomes chronic bronchitis. Most of the people attacked of pneumonia, but give it the attention it deserves and get rid of it. Take Cambridge's cough remedy, and you are sure of prompt relief. From a small beginning the sale and use of this preparation has extended to all parts of the United States and to many foreign countries. Its many remarkable cures of coughs and colds have won for it this wide reputation. It is sold by all drug stores, or by Osmond Drug Stores, 7th

BROADWAY AT 14th ST.
OAKLAND

ACROSS THE FOOTLIGHTSBRILLIANT STAR TO SPARKLE AT THE ORPHEUM

La Sylphe, Rage of Paris, to Dance at Local Playhouse.

One of the fruits of Martin Beck's last trip to Paris will be in evidence on the stage at the Oakland Orpheum next Sunday afternoon when La Sylphe, the famous Parisian danseuse makes her debut in Oakland. Martin Beck is the general manager of the Orpheum Circuit company. Every few months he slips across the big pond, runs through the capitals of Europe, signs contracts with the greatest stars of the big music halls in the European capitals, and then comes back to continue his work at the head of the Orpheum company's operations.

On his last trip abroad Beck had a glimpse of La Sylphe at the Folies Bergere in Paris and promptly proceeded to make terms with the dancer for a tour of the Orpheum theaters in America.

Rage of Paris.
La Sylphe was then the rage in Paris. She had developed something unusual in the way of terpsichorean art. The fickle Parisians had acclaimed her as the most brilliant star among all the dancers who had tripped over the stages of the Paris music halls, and she reigned as queen over the multitude.

There were demands upon La Sylphe from St. Petersburg and Vienna, from London and Berlin where music hall managers are on the keen lookout for the latest in the way of Parisian novelties.

Beautiful Woman.

Beck, however, secured this dancing star, for the gold of the Orpheum Circuit company is potent in Europe as elsewhere, when it comes to securing the names of famous actresses to contract with the Orpheum company.

Thus it is that La Sylphe, a rarely beautiful woman, will be seen by Oakland theater-goers at the Orpheum on Twelfth street next Sunday afternoon. Her pictures reveal her as a beautiful girl, tall, lithe and evidently of exceptional grace. She is on the stage for only a few minutes, it is said, but in those few minutes reveals talent for classical dancing that amounts almost to positive genius.

'BOYS OF CO. B'

Comedy at Ye Liberty Makes a Hit With the Playgoers.

Manager H. W. Bishop of Ye Liberty Theater makes good his promise to give Oakland the best obtainable. The presentation this week of "The Boys of Company B," one of this season's New York successes, is evidence of the fact.

First in the native land, then Justice Wayne and Jack Kelton. Now it is Marion Barney, who plays the leading role in Company B.

The play is in three acts, written by Rida Johnson Young, and treats of an attempted barter and sale of hearts, with the camp of the New York National Guard as a setting, are reinforced by ready wit, saves the day and Elleen MacLane, the role played by Miss Barney, marries the man of her choice, Tony Allen, played by Landers Stevens.

Miss Barney made good as the role of Elleen was admirably impersonated. It calls for versatility and her interpretation of the part was good, giving it sufficient dignity, yet showing due vivacity, whenever necessary. Miss Barney proved herself a capable artist and good addition to the Ye Liberty company.

Landers Stevens, as Tony, plays a part immensely popular with the audience. It is a new type of a stage hero. He gives it the proper exaggeration and a whimsical humor that makes his work satisfying.

Henry C. Mortimer makes the character of Jim MacLane stand out as a fine example of the actor's art, some good acting is also done by George Friend and Ed. L. Benson.

Estelle Wardfield plays "Florence Henderson," and George Cooper is funny and delightful as Madge Blake. The other roles are well played.

The scenery is consistent with the spirit of the play, a gymnasium and military camp. Realism is provided for by a vocal quartet and chorus, whose singing is one of the features of the piece.

Next week, "In the Bishop's Carriage."

FAMOUS FIFTY YEARS

PROBE FAILURE OF TRUST COMPANY

Legislative Committee Orders Former Bank Commissioners to Tell Its Methods.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Former Bank Commissioner C. H. Duemmel and J. C. Currier will be called before the Joint Committee of the Senate and Assembly on Banks and Banking next week to tell what they know of the business methods pursued by the defunct California Safe Deposit and Trust Company previous to its suspension.

Senator Wolfe wanted to take the matter up immediately, but some of his colleagues feared "they might be getting hold of a hot stick and might not be able to let go." Chairman Leavitt announced that he was not afraid to take hold of any stick.

Representatives of the Associated Savings Banks were called before the joint committee yesterday. Lovell White of the San Francisco Savings Union, W. E. Palmer of the Humboldt Savings Bank and George H. Storey of the Mutual Savings Bank gave data that undoubtedly will be used by the committee in drawing its findings.

White stated that the attorney-general had notified all savings banks not to make deposits with commercial banks.

Palmer suggested to the committee that it recommend an amendment to the present banking laws, that would permit a savings bank to purchase State, municipal or county bonds and deposit the same with the county treasurer as security for money deposited by the latter with the savings banks.

"Instead of having our money locked up in the treasurer's vaults we can place it in active circulation. This would stimulate the sale of such bonds," said Palmer.

Robert Eustis, speaker of the house, was an interested listener during the session.

This morning the trust companies will send representatives to discuss financial affairs with the committee.
